

Gender Institutional Transformation

Gender Institutional Transformation

To become equal for women and men, institutions must be willing to change.

This step-by-step guide helps institutions transform, starting from their basic values and beliefs, to the rules and regulations that lead to more effective working outcomes. It is targeted at public institutions within the EU as bodies that are accountable for gender equality.

Why institutional change is necessary

Success stories from EU Member States

Contents

- Back to toolkit page
- What is Institutional Transformation
- Why focus on Institutional Transformation
- Who the guide is for
- Guide to Institutional Transformation
 - ▼ PREPARATION PHASE
 - ▼ IMPLEMENTATION PHASE
 - ▼ EVALUATION AND FOLLOW-UP PHASE

-
- Dealing with resistance
 - Checklist: Key questions for change
 - Examples from the EU
-

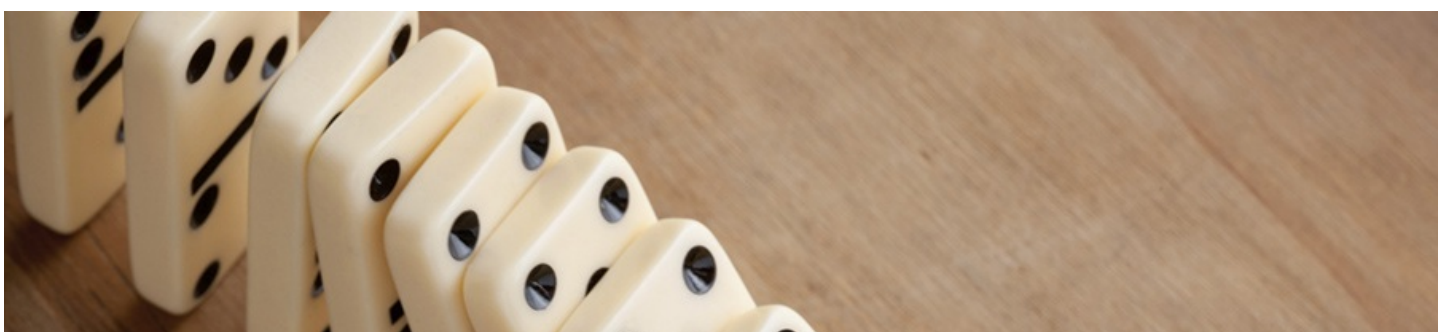

Downloads

Download the Gender Institutional Transformation guide EN (3.7 MB)

More gender mainstreaming toolkits

Gender equality training

Gender impact assessment

Gender equality in academia and research: GEAR

[SEE ALL
TOOLKITS](#) →