

Europol supports International Women's day

Europol sees this 102nd International Women's Day with the theme The Gender Agenda: Gaining Momentum as the ideal opportunity to recognise the achievements of all women working within the organisation.

Today more than 200 women from all over the European Union and beyond are working at Europol's headquarters in The Hague. They represent a variety of disciplines, backgrounds and cultures and fulfil various roles and functions.

Access Europol's webpage dedicated to International Women's Day