

One of the few that cannot be replaced - Izabela Jaruga-Nowacka

The Women Inspiring Europe 2011 Calendar features Izabela Jaruga-Nowacka in the month of April. This month, in April 2011, will mark the first anniversary of Izabela Jaruga-Nowacka's death. It will also be the anniversary of a national tragedy. On April, Poland suffered one of its worst political disasters after President Lech Kaczyński and an exclusive government delegation were killed in a plane crash.

Izabela Jaruga-Nowacka was one of only a couple of companions to the president's delegation, hand-selected by Lech Kaczyński and his staff. One of the most important and outspoken politicians of the opposition, she had gained the respect of politicians of all colours for her sharp ability to transform her views and beliefs into political actions.
