Ex-ante publicity notice: Improvement of EIGE's Stakeholders Database by implementation of a CRM system

EN (PDF, 57.74 KB)

The European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE) envisages awarding a low-value contract for implementation of a customer relationship management (CRM) system in order to make management of EIGE's stakeholders more effective. This is done as part of an update of EIGE's stakeholder management plan and improvement, update, and expansion of the stakeholder database.
