

Collection of Good Practices on Non-Monetary Measures in the Area of Women and Poverty: Data and Policy Systems

This factsheet is part of the study “Collection of good practices of non-monetary measures in the area of Women and Poverty” (EIGE/2015/OPER/18). This study was commissioned by the European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE) and implemented by the Fondazione Giacomo Brodolini (FGB). EIGE provides high quality research to support better informed policy-making at EU and Member State levels, in the critical areas of concern of the BPfA chosen by the EU Presidencies. EIGE developed an online platform on gender mainstreaming that provides access to a database of researches and good practices collection on specific area of the BPfA.
