

Grey literature on tourism

The screenshot shows a webpage with an orange header containing the EIGE logo and the title 'Grey literature on tourism'. Below the header, there is a main text block explaining what grey literature is and where it can be found. To the right, there is a smaller text block about the EIGE collection of grey literature. Below this, there is a section titled 'The relevance of gender in tourism' with a sub-heading 'Little attention has been paid to how the tourism industry impacts women and men differently. However, tourism presents both opportunities and challenges for women and must subsequently be examined through a gender lens.' This section is accompanied by a photograph of a lake and mountains. Further down, there is a section titled 'Grey literature in EIGE's library' which describes the collection and lists various types of documents available. To the right of this section is a 'Reading list' box containing several links to reports and documents. The bottom of the page features a 'Downloads' section with a yellow download icon and the text 'Grey literature on tourism (EN (PDF, 322.91 KB))'.
