

Seconded National Expert (SNE) – MEN & GENDER EQUALITY

The European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE)[\[1\]](#) invites applications with a view to establishing a reserve list for Seconded National Experts (SNE) – Men & Gender Equality.

The registration of applications will begin on 7 May 2013 and will close on 6 June 2013 at 23:00 Eastern European Time (EET). The deadline has been extended until 31 July 2013 at 23:00 EET.

1. The role of the Institute

Based in Vilnius, Lithuania, EIGE is a regulatory agency of the European Union (EU) entrusted with specific objectives related to the promotion of gender equality.

To achieve its goals, the Institute shall collect and analyse objective, comparable and reliable information at Community level and develop appropriate methodological tools for the integration of gender equality into all Community policies. EIGE shall equally foster the exchange of good practices and dialogue between stakeholders and raise EU citizen awareness of this policy area by providing technical assistance to the Community institutions, in particular the Commission, as well as the authorities of the Member States.

In the course of its work to promote and strengthen gender equality, EIGE will also strive to eliminate gender discrimination.

After conducting its first mapping study on the involvement of men in gender equality initiatives in the EU and consultations with experts, the Institute plans further development in this area.

2. Job Description

2.1 Profile

Under the supervision of the Head of Operations and working closely with the Institute's focal point on this area, the SNE will support the development of a strategic framework which addresses men and gender equality as well as more broadly, the benefits of gender equality.

2.2 Duties

The following tasks and activities are relevant to the duties of this post:

- Consult experts in the field of men and gender equality as well as on the benefits of gender equality;
- Apply standard theories, principles, practices and techniques applicable to the theme of men and gender equality.
- Identify activities on a national level across EU Member States and beyond, that relate to the area of Men and Gender Equality
- Provide critical assessment and recommendations on the potential use of existing data and knowledge-based products at EIGE and future developments in this area;
- Contribute to the improvement of the Institute's role as a one-stop-shop for information on men and gender equality in the EU.

3. Qualifications and experience required

3.1 Formal requirements

To be considered eligible for selection, an applicant must meet the following formal requirements by the closing date of this call:

- a university degree, or a level of formation which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma^[2] and appropriate professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years,
- very good command of both spoken and written English, which is the predominant working language at the Institute and a satisfactory knowledge of a second EU language,
- entitlement to full rights as a European citizen or nationality of an EU candidate country or an EFTA country or a country with which the European Council has decided to open accession negotiations and which has concluded a specific agreement with the European Commission on staff secondments,
- any obligations imposed by national law concerning military service.

3.2 Selection criteria

Eligible candidates will be evaluated on the basis of the following criteria:

Essential:

- At least four years of professional experience gained after the award of the relevant

- At least four years of professional experience gained after the award of the relevant qualification and at a suitable level corresponding to performance of tasks as defined under section 2.2;
- Practical experience of working with men and gender equality policies, programmes and/or projects
- The ability to conduct background research and to produce high quality framework proposals;
- The capacity to conceptualize and structure information and to communicate it effectively;
- Evident organisational skills, including the ability to manage priorities, work under pressure and reach tight deadlines;
- Good computer skills, especially in preparing and editing text;
- The ability to cooperate smoothly in a multicultural environment.
- Thorough knowledge on gender equality issues in particular the theme of Men and Gender Equality;

Advantageous:

- Academic experience in the field of Men and Gender Equality
- A good knowledge of the EU institutional framework and policies.

4. Selection procedure and application

4.1 Selection procedure

The selection will include the following steps:

- Only duly completed applications submitted electronically within the deadline will be taken into consideration.
- Each duly completed application will be examined with a view to establishing that the candidate meets all eligibility criteria.
- The best-admissible candidates will be short-listed for an interview.
- Interviews will be held in English.
- The Selection Committee will examine the candidates' profiles and assess their relevancy for the post in question. On the day of the interview, candidates may also be required to undergo a competency assessment exercise.
- The chosen candidate will be requested to furnish:

- a copy of identity card, passport or other official document specifying citizenship,
- a copy of diploma certifying a required level of academic qualifications,
- documentary evidence of professional experience, clearly indicating starting and finishing dates.

Copies of the above mentioned documents will be retained by the Institute;

- If at any stage of the procedure, it were established that information in the application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate shall be disqualified from the process.
- The initial period of secondment shall be specified in the exchange of letters between the Institute and the employer of the selected SNE.

Soliciting on behalf of a candidate can lead to immediate disqualification.

4.2 Submission of applications

For applications to be valid, candidates must complete an EIGE application form, available only in English and which is to be forwarded electronically to eige.hr@eige.europa.eu. The subject title should include the vacancy reference number. Applications may also be forwarded to EIGE on behalf of applicants by the Permanent Representations of the EU Member States.

An application form is available here. Applicants are requested not to attach any supporting documents at this stage (e.g. copies of ID cards, diplomas, evidence of previous professional experience, etc.). Only shortlisted candidates will be asked to present copies of these documents for verification. Applications will not be returned to candidates but will be kept on the file by the Institute in line with its data protection guidelines.

Due to the large volume of applications, the Institute regrets that only candidates selected for the interviews will be contacted.

5. Conditions of secondment

The purpose of the secondment is to provide the SNE with experience of the Institute's working methods and policies, to enable them to gain practical experience and understanding of the day-to-day operation of the Institute and to give them the opportunity to work in a multicultural, multilingual environment. It also serves to enable staff of national administrations to put into practice the knowledge they have acquired in their studies, particularly in their respective areas of responsibility.

The SNE shall remain in the service of her/his employer throughout the period of secondment and shall continue to be paid by that employer. The SNE shall be entitled to daily and monthly subsistence allowances in line with EIGE Decision MB 2012/50 on the secondment to the European subsistence allowances in line with EIGE Decision MB 2012/50 on the secondment to the European Institute for Gender Equality of national experts and national experts in professional training (available here).

Each candidate should, before applying, obtain the assurance of the support of her/ his employer for her/ his candidacy as well as the commitment that they shall continue to pay a salary during the period of the secondment. The final stage to secure the secondment will be confirmed by an exchange of letters between the Institute and the employer in the Member State concerned.

The secondment will be for a minimum of six months but not more than two years and may be extended further up to a maximum period of an additional two years (four years in all). The place of secondment shall be Vilnius, Lithuania.

6. Independence and declarations of interest

The SNE will be required to enter into a commitment to act independently in the public interest and to make complete declarations of any direct or indirect interests that might be considered prejudicial to his or her independence.

7. Equal opportunities

EIGE applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds.

8. Appeal procedures

If a candidate considers that s/he has been adversely affected by a particular decision, s/he can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Communities, by writing to The Director, European Institute for Gender Equality, Gedimino pr. 16, Vilnius, Lithuania LT-01103.

The complaint must be lodged within three months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations as modified by Council Regulation No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004 published in the Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 – <http://europa.eu.int/eur-lex>) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

9. Protection of personal data

As the body responsible for organising the competition, EIGE ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Communities, L 8 of 12 January 2001). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

Personal data shall thus be processed solely for the purpose of the selection procedure.

10. Lithuania and life in Vilnius

Lithuania is a member of the Schengen Area and it borders Latvia, Belarus, Poland and the Kaliningrad region of Russia. Its western coastline - noted for its fine beaches, dunes and majestic pines - straddles the Baltic Sea. Lithuanian summers are sunny and warm with an average temperature of 17 C. Winter is white and generally cold with average temperatures that hover around minus 4 C.

Vilnius is Lithuania's capital with an estimated population of just over half a million citizens. It has impressive Baroque, Gothic, Renaissance and Russian architecture as well as one of Europe's largest medieval old towns, a UNESCO World Heritage site since 1994. A university city since the Middle Ages, Vilnius is the centre of the country's politics, business, science, culture and entertainment and it attracts an increasingly varied assortment of local and international events. In addition to hosting a number of international schools, it has a well-developed infrastructure and ambitious future plans.

[1] Established by the European Parliament and of the Council Regulation (EC) No 1922/2006 of 20 December 2006 (OJ L 403/9 of 30.12.2006)

[2] Only qualifications issued by EU Member State authorities and qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant Member States authorities will be accepted.

Metadata

PUBLISHED DATE: 06 May 2013