Additional information

I am a graduate of University of Piraeus in International and European Relations, and of the National School of Public Administration. I am currently Head of Autonomous Department of European and International Cooperation of the General Secretariat for Gender Equality (Hellenic Ministry of Interior).

Details of employment

I work in the General Secretariat for Gender Equality since 2008. My duties in the field of gender equality in the first years of work were relevant to violence against women, as I was working in the competent department. My main job entailed redaction of reports and documents regarding Violence against Women, data collection and submission of questionnaires to international organizations and the EU. In 2013 I was promoted to Head of Department of European Policy and in 2014 after the reorganization of the Ministry of Interior, I was appointed Head of Department of European and International Cooperation. In 2017 the Department became autonomous. My main duties now regard the communication with international organizations and EU agencies, monitoring of gender equality policies in other countries, drafting of documents in related fields of gender equality for government officials who represent Greece in European and international fora. Member of the European Commission's Advisory Committee on Equal Opportunities for Women and Men and of the Gender Equality Committee of the Council of Europe.

Memberships

I am alternate member of the Advisory Committee on Equal Opportunities for Women and Men and of the Gender Equality Committee of the Council of Europe.
