Subject: Ex-ante publicity notice for procurement procedure (€15 000.01-€ 60 000.00)
Member States legal and policy measures to tackle the gender pay gap

Reference number: EIGE/2018/OPER/12

Description of the contract

The European Institute for Gender Equality (EIGE) envisages awarding a low-value contract with a professional service provider in order to carry out a study to map Member States legal and policy measures to tackle the gender pay gap and to provide an evidence of successful initiatives.

Description of the requested services

The objective of the contract is to 1) map legal and policy measures in the EU Member States to tackle the gender pay gap; 2) provide examples of successful actions from Member States to tackle gender pay gap and identify the key systemic success factors, based on evidence and wider research in this area; 3) provide concrete recommendations for broad policy directions and for specific measures that are based on evidence.

Description of the procedure

This ex-ante publicity is the first stage of the negotiated procurement procedure through which EIGE may award the above-mentioned contract.

All parties interested in providing the services described above should express their interest 400 words maximum, by e-mail, to procurement@eige.europa.eu with the subject reference: EIGE/2018/OPER/12, before 24/07/2018 11:00 Vilnius time.

Economic operators who do not express their interest before the deadline and to the address above will not be invited to submit an offer. The latter restriction will not apply to the minimum three economic operators directly invited by EIGE.

Tender documents will be sent by e-mail.

This publication constitutes no obligation for EIGE to launch the mentioned procurement procedure.

We look forward to receiving your declaration of interest.
