

Study visit of Swedish police project in Serbia to EIGE

EIGE's work on Good Practices and the engagement of Police

Maurizio Mosca

EIGE 24 November 2017

Achievements

- Analysis
- Criteria
- Consultation
- Assessment
- Dissemination

- Gender Training into professional CV, Luxembourg
- Police nationwide registration of comprehensive data, Denmark
- A high-quality source on femicide, Finland

GOVERNANCE

- Rescuing Women from marginalization and violence, Spain
- Rape Crisis Network, Ireland
- Centralized and joint database on violence against women, Croatia

TEAMWORK

- Well-developed strategy
- Appropriate length and appropriate time frame
- Balance of methods
- Multi levels and multi agency training
- Vocational training in formal curriculum
- Survivors, specialists and experts involvement

- Collaboration with designers of administrative systems and joint work with data suppliers is in place.
- Definitions of different forms of violence against women are harmonised with international/common ones.
- Data is made visible to increase awareness of violence in the society

- The integration of data and information on violence against women survivors and perpetrators and the relationship between them is present.
- The harmonisation of the definitions of different forms of violence against women on the basis of International Crime Classification System is present.
- The integration of data and information on violence against women from different sources to ensure comparability is taken into adequate consideration.

