Bridging gender research and policy-makers to tackle the new and emerging challenges the European Union is facing!

Agnès Hubert (PRESAGE/Sciencepo/OFCE)
Gill Allwood (Nottingham Trent University)
Mari-Liis Sepper (Transgender Europe)
Tamás Heizer (EIGE's Management Board)
Virginija Langbakk (EIGE)

The European Union has faced several challenges during the past years; ranging from the economic and bank crisis, migration flows and BREXIT to the rise of populist and anti-research movements. Academia has a strong role in understanding these issues in depth. In this roundtable we look at how the academic research on gender could better inform policy-making institutions, intergovernmental bodies and international organisations to take stock at the research findings.

- 18.00-18.15 Coffee break
- 18.15-18.45 Book launch

ATGENDER Teaching Series new book: Teaching Gender: Feminist pedagogy and responsibility in times of political crisis (Chair: Gail Dworkin)

Ana María González Ramos, Beatriz Revelles (co-editors).
Jessie Bustillos (contributor)

Inspired by bell hooks' "transgressive school" and Donna Haraway's "responsibility", this collection promotes a politics of care within the classroom through new forms of organisational practice. It engages with the challenges and possibilities of teaching students about women and gender by examining the multiple pedagogical, theoretical, and political dimensions of feminist teaching. The book revisits how we can reconfigure a feminist politics of responsibility that is able to respond to or engage with contemporary crises. It also conceptualises crisis and explores how it is transforming contemporary societies and affecting individual vulnerabilities and institutional structures. Finally, it offers practical cases from different European territories, in which crisis and responsibility have served to reformulate contemporary feminist pedagogies, altering curricula, reframing institutions, and affecting the process of teaching and learning.

- 19.30-21.00 Conference Dinner (Vilnius University's cafe, Universiteto str. 7)
